

Categories of Class III posts for which applications were invited by the P. S. C. in 1961.

Q.—813. Sri B. S. SAUDAGAR (Raibag).—

Will the Government be pleased to state :—

(a) whether the P. S. C. was dealing with the recruitment of Class III officials in 1961; and if so, the categories of posts to which applications were invited by them in 1961;

(b) whether it is a fact that those applications were not considered by them, and if so, by whom they were considered and the results thereon;

(c) whether they have excluded any posts from the purview of P. S. C. so far, and if so, when;

(d) whether they are aware that such an exclusion has caused considerable inconvenience to those applied to P. S. C. in 1961?

A.—Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA (Chief Minister).—

(a) Yes. Till 23rd October 1961. The particulars of posts are given in the statement (placed on the Table of the House). [Placed in Mysore Legislature Library vide No. 21 L.A. December 1963.]

(b) It is not a fact that the P. S. C. did not consider the applications that were called for by it during 1961. It had made selection to Class III posts till 23rd October 1961 and after this date, it was precluded from considering the applications which were pending on that date. Such applications cannot be considered by any other body.

(c) Recruitment to all Class III posts was removed from the purview of P. S. C. with effect from 23rd October 1961. This was however reconsidered and the work of recruitment to Class III posts carrying a minimum basic pay of Rs. 150 and above was re-entrusted on 18th February 1963 to the P. S. C. with the exception of posts of Sub-Inspectors of Police, Supervisors and Junior Engineers of Public Works Department.

(d) Yes.

Bifurcation of the posts of Director of Technical Education and Chief Engineer, Major Irrigation.

Q.—858. Sri A. KRISHNA SHETTY (Mangalore-II).—

Will the Government be pleased to state :—

(a) whether the posts of Director of Technical Education and Chief Engineer, Major Irrigation is held by one and the same person;

(b) whether they intend to bifurcate these two posts and appoint two different persons who are fully qualified to hold these posts in the interest of administration?
